EDDC LEADER CRASHES OUT

Sara Randall Johnson leaves after 20-year council seat

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

SARA Randall Johnson failed to defend her Ottery St Mary Rural Ward seat on East Devon District Council (EDDC) and crashed out after 20 years as a member and 10 as leader.

She led EDDC until the end of the last council term but announced in November 2010 that she would not seek the leadership if re-elected.

But last Thursday she was 25 votes behind fellow Conservative candidate Tony Howard, who finished second with 822 votes and claimed the last seat in the ward.

In a statement issued through EDDC, Sara Randall Johnson said: "I now have my life back after 20 years of public service, 10 as Leader.

"I am leaving a strong and healthy debt-free council with the lowest council tax in Devon, ready and able to meet future challenges.

"I am proud to have had the privilege of representing Ottery Rural over the years."

Pulman's View sought further comment without success.

The ward was emphatically won by independent candidate Claire Wright with 1,364 votes.

East Devon District Council's political balance is unchanged, though, the Conservatives having overall control with 43 seats — the Liberal Democrats taking 10 seats and independent candidates winning six seats.

In Axminster, John Jeffery (ind) held on to his seat uncontested whilst Douglas Hull (Lib Dem) and Andrew Moulding (Cons) also defended their seats successfully.

Coly Valley Ward seats were won by Conservatives Graham Godbeer and Helen Parr whilst Bob Buxton (Cons) won Dunkseswell uncontested.

Conservative Graham Brown took Feniton and Buckereil — and other seat winners included Conservatives Mike Allen, Peter Halse, Phil Twiss (all Honiton St Michael's Ward), Roger Boote and John O'Leary (both Honiton St Paul's).

Conservative Iain Chubb won Newbridges whilst independent Roger Giles and Conservative David Cox took the two seats up for grabs in Ottery St Mary Town Ward.

Ten candidates contested the three seats available in Seaton, the successful ones being Liberal Democrat Peter Burrows plus Conservatives Steph Jones and Jim Knight.

Ian Thomas (Cons) took Trinity Ward whilst Paul Diviani won Yarty Ward uncontested.

The issue of missing poll cards worried candidates across all parties.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, a number of electors complained they had not received a poll card.

EDDC pointed in the direction of Royal Mail and issued a statement on Monday, May 3rd saying: "On March 28th Royal Mail collected poll cards for all those on the register and eligible to vote.

"It now appears that a significant number of these were not delivered.

"The returning officer has now arranged for replacement notifications to be sent to all voters in Branscombe whose names are recorded on the Electoral Register.

"It is clearly too late to send out new polling cards to all those affected, but this is not necessary due to the fact that you can vote without one."

A Royal Mail spokesperson commented: "We have investigated concerns raised by EDDC.

"Whilst we are not currently aware of any problems with the delivery of polling cards in the area, we will continue to liaise with the council where they highlight specific issues."

A spokesperson for EDDC said on polling day that the authority was unlikely to make further comment for a while.

The overall turnout was high with a ward average of around 50 per cent.

Mayor loses seat on town council

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

RON Jones will not be able to formally pass on the mayoral chain to his successor as he dropped out of Axminster Town Council in last week's local elections.

Mr Jones served the last two council terms as town mayor, so would have been expected to step down from that role regardless and — if re-elected — revert to a seat at the councillors' table.

But when the count was finished, it emerged that Mr Jones had lost his seat on the town council.

Mr Jones has been a town councillor for more than 10 years, a tenure which came to an abrupt end.

Mr Jones says he has "no idea at all" why his popularity dropped.

He said: "You can make all sorts of assertions, if it was this or that.

"That's how it goes. One minute you are here, and you are gone the next.

"It was the people's vote, and I'm not bitter."

He also said that he was grateful for all the support given to him over the years by fellow councillors and residents.

When asked if he might try to win his seat back at the next election, he said: "It could well be."

The successful candidates in Town Ward were: Douglas Hull 1063 votes, Andrew Moulding 898, John Jeffery 780, Graham Godbeer 593, Mervyn Symes 546, Jeremy Walden 434, John Stevenson 360, Sara Leat 350, Paul Hayward 339, Chris Scott 320 (all elected).

Martin Spurway 294, Ron Jones 287 and Reg Brown 249 failed to gain election.

The turnout was 47.7 per cent.

Raymonds Hill Ward was uncontested and will be represented by Rob Jordan and Brian Watson. Weycroft Ward was also uncontested and will be represented by Joy Hull, Tracey Huntley and Susan Spiller.

New church plans amended

KILMINGTON Baptist Church has amended its planning application for permission to build a Baptist church on land at the corner of George Lane and the A35.

The planning application will be decided by East Devon District Council and the amended version was created after Kilminster parish councillors unanimously recommended refusal earlier this year — their main concerns being traffic-related issues and the size of the proposed building.

Changes included in the amended version include a reduction of the size of the building by about 30 per cent.

◆ YOUNGSTERS from Chardstock Primary School celebrate the news that Chardstock Park Trust has been awarded funds that will be used to buy equipment for Chardstock play area

Park bid wins £15K

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

A CHARDSTOCK charity has scooped a £15,000 prize and the money will be used to fit out the village play area.

As previously reported in Pulman's View, Chardstock Park Trust had been competing in a nationwide competition to claim the funds that will be used to purchase equipment for the play area close to the community hall and new school.

The competition was organised by Robinsons Fruit Shoot Parents for Playgrounds. Since February this year the competition has asked parents to nominate and vote for the playground they would like to receive funding.

Chardstock Park Trust beat off competition from more than a 1,000 entries and made it to the final five.

And it was a good result for members of the trust as on Thursday, May 5th, they received the news that they had all been hoping for.

Carol Humphreys, who nominated Chardstock play ground in the Robinsons competition, said: "We are so excited to have won the Parents for Playgrounds bursary. The £15,000 bursary is going to make such a massive difference to our local playground and to all the kids that play there. I really can't wait to hear and see more on how the money is going to be put to good use."

Nadia Moussa, brand manager for Robinsons Fruit Shoot, added: "The Parents for Playground campaign was designed to help parents preserve the important tradition of outdoor play for their children, so it's great to know that parents and kids are still passionate about their playgrounds."

"We want to give our winners a playground to be proud of because all parents and all children deserve a natural and safe place to play outside."

"We're looking forward to unveiling the playgrounds later in the year."

Body found on train line

A FEMALE from the Honiton area was found dead on the railway line at Chard Junction.

The 36-year-old woman was a patient at Wonford House in Exeter and had recently been living in the Honiton area.

A spokesperson for Devon and Cornwall Police said: "At around 11.30am on Thursday May 5th, staff from the Cedars at Wonford House in Exeter alerted police that a 36-year-old woman was missing."

"A large scale search of the area was completed without success by all available Exeter response officers including dogs and the police helicopter."

"At around 2.30pm Avon and Somerset Police informed Devon and Cornwall Police that a body had been found on a railway line at Chard Junction."

"The body was identified as that of the missing person and their next of kin has been informed."

"British Transport Police are now dealing with this."

"This is not thought to be a suspicious death and a report will now be put together for the Somerset coroner."

Crews attend crash report

FIRE crews from Axminster and Colyton were called to reports of a car crash at Seaton Junction in the early hours of Wednesday, May 4th.

The incident took place just before 6am and involved a private delivery vehicle. Crews made the vehicle safe. Police and ambulance services also attended the scene.

VILLAGE SCHOOL CLOSURE THREAT

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

NO decision has been taken — but the future of a local primary school looks decidedly bleak.

Devon County Council has launched a public consultation on a proposal to shut down Dalwood Primary School, which currently has 12 pupils on roll.

Four of these are set to leave for secondary school at the end of the 2010-11 academic year, and pupil numbers are not expected to improve.

As a result, the school could close at the end of this year.

The problem of low pupil numbers is not a new one and attempts to find a solution have been made.

Plans to form a federation with Membury Primary School were announced last year, but were unsuccessful.

According to the local education authority, Devon County Council (DCC), the governing body has concluded that closing the school is in the best interests of the children.

But DCC stresses that no decision has been taken.

A DCC spokesperson said: "No decision has been taken to close the school.

"The governors and DCC are consulting on that possibility.

"If, at the end of the consultation period, a decision is taken that closure is the best option then a public notice will be issued and people have six weeks to make further representations.

"Then the matter will be debated by DCC. If the school were to close, it is likely it would be at the end of the calendar year.

"In any consultation of this nature we obviously want to hear from as many people as possible — parents, governors, staff and the wider village community."

All these groups were invited to an information session at the school on Friday, May 6th.

Consultation material stated: "The school has physical capacity to take up to 49 pupils and has been operating with a high level of surplus places for some years.

This situation is not forecast to improve.

"Delivering a full and balanced curriculum and the ability to fulfil age-related expectations is difficult with such a small and decreasing number of children.

"DCC and the governing body's primary concern is that pupils receive the best possible education and learning opportunities.

"To achieve this the governing body has explored alternatives such as federating with another school but this has not materialised.

"With regret, it has concluded that closing the school is in the best interests of the children.

"We would like to hear your views on this proposal by 5pm on Tuesday June 14th."

Responses can be sent to schoolconsultations@devon.gov.uk

Police issue appeal after farm thefts

POLICE are appealing for witnesses and information following a number of vehicle thefts from farms and rural locations across east Devon.

In the early hours of Monday, May 2nd, a red Honda quad bike and a silver Ford Ranger were stolen from a farm premises in Yacombe.

A second location in Branscombe was also targeted and another red Honda quad bike was taken.

A spokesman for Honiton CID, who are investigating the case, said: "We would encourage local residents to look out for one another and to report suspicious activity to police immediately.

"The quicker we receive such reports, the quicker we can act. Always take down the registration details of suspicious vehicles, as this can form a key piece of information for subsequent police investigations.

"We would also encourage residents and people working in rural east Devon areas to join our successful Farm Watch scheme, which will alert them to crime and suspicious activity via phone, email or fax, and creates a network of like-minded people who can share information and who can act as an extra pair of eyes and ears in the community.

"I would also urge all owners of quad bikes to ensure the keys are not kept with the bikes."

Anyone with information about the thefts is asked to contact police on 08452 777444 quoting crime number KH/11/280.

Alternatively, information can be given by calling Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

New £1m contract looms for town carpet firm

AN Axminster company has started work on a new contract worth more than £1million a year.

Axminster Carpets has been working with pub chain Wetherspoon for about a year and used to get a small part of the chain's carpet orders.

But Axminster Carpets MD Josh Dutfield said the pub chain was so impressed that a rolling contract worth approximately £1.2million a year was agreed in late March.

Mr Dutfield said: "They were impressed by the speed, quality and customer service."

Pointing towards the production area, he added: "It is testament to the guys out there, the weavers and production staff in Axminster."

He stressed that the Wetherspoon carpet is produced in Axminster, and the contract makes up about 10 per cent of the total annual production at the site.

He explained: "It is made here, not in Ireland. This is the headquarters.

"They [Wetherspoon] were looking for hard-wearing carpet and offered us the chance to tender for the vast majority of their refurbishments.

"Obviously we have got to do our bit to make sure we keep the business.

"We are obviously delighted to be producing carpets for Wetherspoon.

"This further strengthens our diversification - all thanks to the loyal workforce here at Axminster Carpets."

Mr Dutfield said the company has taken on 25 people since September last year and about 15 of them are attributed to the Wetherspoon order.

CHARDSTOCK Vintage Tractor and Machinery Club's tractor trundle attracted more than 70 drivers and was won by Shaun Eveleigh, of Chard, in his David Brown Cropmaster.

The trundle was held on Monday, May 2nd, starting and finishing in Chardstock.

Club secretary Jan Bond said: "They [participants] went on a tractor trundle from Chardstock through to Thorncombe Sports Club for a break, just in time as the heavens opened, then past Forde Abbey and back to Tatworth. They then went up Parrocks Lane for a short off road trip and back to Chardstock for a wholesome ploughman's lunch, prepared by Glo Fowler and her sister Mary."

The trundle was fronted by Den Rocket, and among marshalls were Nigel Garth and Roy Fowler.

Money was raised for the air ambulance services based in Devon, Dorset and Somerset — and a cheque presentation will be staged when the amounts are known.

Jan added: "Thank you to everyone for their support including the tractor drivers and the judges, Kevin Salter and Ken Clifford from Colyton."

No inspection needed for top village school

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@findlenews.co.uk

MRS Ethelston's Church of England Primary School at Uplyme is doing so well that it won't undergo a routine Ofsted inspection.

The school was inspected in 2008 and deemed overall as Outstanding.

Another inspection was due — but a new piece of regulation means it won't be necessary.

The Chief Inspector of Schools, Christine Gilbert, explained: "The 2011 Education Bill proposes that schools were previously judged to be Outstanding will not be subject to routine inspection unless concerns are raised about their performance."

She explained that Ofsted will instead carry out what is known as an interim assessment by studying information like pupils' academic performance, attendance and other factors.

In a letter to the school she wrote: "To help decide whether we need to inspect an outstanding school, inspectors look at various sources of information — pupils' academic performance, attendance, any inspection visits carried out by Ofsted since the last routine inspection, complaints about the school by parents or carers or any other significant concerns brought to Ofsted's attention.

"I am pleased to inform you that our interim assessment indicates performance has been sustained.

"We will continue to undertake annual assessments of the school's performance.

"I wish everyone involved in the school continued success in the future."

Headteacher Andrea Rice, said: "We are delighted to be recognised as an outstanding school for the second time.

"This is in recognition of all the hard work by the whole school team.

"We continue to provide the best education possible for our children in a happy and caring environment where all children are valued."

First aid on the estuary as part of 360 degrees project

FIRST aid scenarios in the great outdoors were on the agenda when members of the Wildlife 360 Degrees Around Seaton project got together at Axe Estuary Wetlands.

Wildlife 360 Degrees Around Seaton is a 12-month National Lottery-funded, volunteer training project, run by Seaton Visitor Centre Trust in partnership with East Devon District Council.

Volunteers have been able to take part in a variety of free training events, including guided walking, hedgelaying and tree identification.

The first weekend of April saw volunteers learning first aid skills, which will help them qualify as event leaders.

Volunteer co-ordinator Meg Knowles said: "I can't think of a better place to learn about first aid in the outdoors.

"The only problem is not becoming distracted by all the fabulous wildlife which surrounds you."

The project will be running until January next year, so it's not too late to get involved.

If you would like to join the group and take part in free training opportunities, contact Meg Knowles on 07734568821 or email mknowles@eastdevon.gov.uk.

DCC waste strategy consultation

A PUBLIC consultation on the future of Devon's waste strategy is currently being carried out by Devon County Council (DCC).

The consultation focuses on the county's waste strategy for the next 20-years and began on Thursday, April 28th.

The council's Waste Core Strategy Issues and Options Consultation Report has been drawn up to identify the most appropriate areas of the county for waste management activities.

The report will consider almost all types of waste including commercial and industrial waste, construction, demolition and excavation waste and hazardous waste, as well as the waste collected from homes across the county.

Will Mumford, DCC cabinet member for economic regeneration and strategic planning, said: "Views of the public, businesses and other organisations will be vital to help the county council in developing the direction of the strategy.

"Further consultations will be held over the coming two years as it continues to develop in more detail."

The first stage of the consultation will run until Thursday, July 21st.

To view the consultation document visit the website at www.devon.gov.uk/wastecorestrategy.

Students get close to bugs

PUPILS at Honiton Community College have taken part in Bug Month, an initiative launched by EDF Energy that hopes to encourage youngsters to do their bit for bio-diversity.

The scheme encourages the pupils to gather facts on insects and bugs and find out about their habitats.

Honiton Community College pupils took part in a variety of activities including writing bug related poems and designing and building bug shelters out of natural and recycled materials.

Roby Broughton, EDF Energy's schools' programme manager, said: "Bug month is a great initiative that gets schoolchildren excited and engaged in biodiversity. Conserving local ecosystems and natural habitats is very important. These activities allow children the chance to embrace green issues whilst getting close to nature."

"Bug Month is one of the many activities we are using to support teachers and continue our work with schools across the UK."

Michael Harket is bringing his life drawing class to the Royal British Legion Club at Dowell Street.

The class started on Wednesday, May 4th, and will run every Wednesday throughout May.

The organisers of the art class say the sessions are suitable for both beginners and the more experienced artist.

Healthy cooking demos for over 60s are free

AXMINSTER-BASED charity Health and Local Food for Families (Halff) is about to start a series of free demonstrations on healthy cookery for the over 60s.

Halff's main activities are centered on providing cookery sessions and nutritional and weaning advice to the parents of babies and pre-school children.

But it became clear to Halff Director Tiggy Parry that many pensioners, who make up the majority of the shop's customers, are faced with very different challenges when it comes to eating healthily and managing a well-balanced diet.

Tiggy said: "We have got to know many elderly members of our community very well and these sessions are a response to the numerous conversations we've had with them about the challenges older people face in maintaining a healthy diet.

"In spite of a population which is generally getting fatter, and so much more at risk of heart disease, stroke and diabetes, there is a significant sector of the elderly population who are actually malnourished."

Halff is particularly keen to attract those who already have conditions such as heart disease and high blood pressure or live on their own, to help and enthuse them to cook in a way that is beneficial to their health.

The free sessions will run on the second Thursday of every month, starting on Thursday, May 12th, from 10.30am-12noon at the No Halff Measures shop, South Street, Axminster

Panto gives performing arts supplies

SEATON Panto has donated equipment with a total value of £1,150.09 for use by the performing arts community in Seaton Town Hall.

Following a very successful show week in February, Seaton Panto found itself with a healthy profit to boot.

The package included a CD/DVD, a PA system, ballet barres and a portable stage ladder.

Director Mary Bowles said that she was thrilled with the result of not only a great show, but the support of local audiences and, most importantly, that special thanks should go to the volunteers who help during show week.

Mary said: "Their free time helps to raise the extra funds, so in turn, they have also helped to buy these gifts for the performing arts community."

3D exhibit at village centre

A NEW exhibit has recently been unveiled at the Beer Fine Foundation Centre.

A 3D interpretation of the cliffs at Beer was welcomed to its new home by Beer parish and district councillors, representatives from Making it Local, the Jurassic Coast Group and some of the volunteers who run the centre.

The exhibit shows the different types of rock and wildlife that is associated with Beer cliffs.

The centre is open from April until October and admission is free.

Town's Castle gets makeover

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@hindlenews.co.uk

AN Axminster hostelry has undergone a major redecoration programme.

The Castle Inn was taken over in November 2010 by landlord Robert Whenray, and has since had an external and internal overhaul as part of a reinvestment package by Punch Taverns.

To celebrate, Mr Whenray and his staff staged an official re-opening party on Good Friday.

The landlord previously ran Goldinis and, following a short time out of the trade, jumped at the chance when the Castle became vacant.

In addition to the refurbishment programme, Mr Whenray has a number of plans in place to attract a wider audience both during the daytime and in the evenings.

The pub has a Casque Award for its real ales and hosts live music and jam nights throughout the year.

Green prize nomination

AN east Devon holiday cottage is in the running to receive an award for its green credentials.

Mazzard Farm, on the outskirts of Ottery St Mary, has been nominated by the Green Tourism Business Scheme (GTBS) to receive a Green Tourism Gold Star award.

The business will be up against 19 others from across the UK and Ireland. The winners will be announced at a ceremony to be held in London in June.

Jacqueline Parker, owner of Mazzard Farm holiday cottages, said: "When you work so hard at making sure the business you run is a positive one, in more ways than one, then being shortlisted for such a prestigious award is just wonderful."

"We are very pleased that the GTBS judges have recognised that running a luxury holiday business can go hand in hand with care for the environment in which we live."

Estate agent expands with surveying recruit

A HONITON estate agent has expanded its team and recruited a new member of staff.

Caroline Snell will be based permanently in the Honiton office providing the services of Stags' rural property consultancy across east Devon, Dorset and south Somerset.

As part of her portfolio Caroline will deal with all aspects of property surveying and advising owners and occupiers on property related issues including valuations, rural planning and diversification, compulsory purchase and compensation, estate management, rural business administration and landlord and tenant issues.

YOUR LETTER COULD WIN £10 VOUCHER to spend at Archway Bookshop, Axminster
~ As chosen by Pulman's View ~

Open your eyes to regeneration

EDITOR — Seaton Regrumpification.

Please, try to read my letter Mr Hunt, Pulman's View Letters, April 19th, before making wild, inaccurate statements.

What I clearly said to our readers was by getting rid of an enormous eyesore and doing it properly, will create better quality local development throughout our town.

It is that and our townsfolk who will regenerate Seaton — not the Tesco shop.

Also EDDC have never been intransigent to developments in this area, they correctly refused plans that failed to overcome the problems of the site.

Ask them, at least get that bit right. I am not an apologist for Tesco but wimpy champion developers who are so plainly getting it right, doing a fantastic job that will, in years to come, benefit everyone including the wildlife in the estuary and marshland.

Open your eyes. Regeneration is really starting to happen.

Throw the pen away, save yourself and your fellow species from extinction.

*Dave Sherman

Wonderful news of a possible film venture

EDITOR — What absolutely wonderful news to read recently in Pulman's View that Honiton may get a cinema. Exactly what the town needs and it will be looked forward to by everyone but particularly by the town's 'senior teens' and young people.

Also with the news that JD Wetherspoon is committed to the town and an ice rink at Turks Head things are really looking up.

Well done to Marianne Harman and good luck in her endeavour. Don't be deterred Marianne when the 'we don't want change, we don't want improvement, we don't want a cinema' brigade come out of the woodwork as surely they will.

Let us all hope that Marianne's plan comes to fruition.

The icing on the cake would now be the news that McDonald's or Burger King intend to open a restaurant in the town. What a benefit particularly for our youngsters.

It was pointed out recently that Honiton has such an outlet in the form of Ali's Kebab Shop but comparing Ali's Kebab Shop with, say, a McDonald's is hardly comparing like with like.

On quite a different tack, how refreshing it was to read again in Pulman's View the letters from Theresa Stockman and Keith Nash in which they supported Tesco's move into Seaton.

Theresa has it exactly right when she wrote that shopping in Tesco is not compulsory.

People make a choice and vote with their feet. It was ever thus. Keith Nash has it right too when he wrote that it is still quite possible to use a supermarket and support the local shops. My wife and I have used Honiton's excellent Tesco for years but still spend money in some of the town's smaller shops. By the way I don't work for Tesco nor am I a Tesco shareholder!

Senior council joins NPC in Devon to become first pensioners' group

EDITOR — Honiton Senior Council has become the first pensioners' group to join the newly established National Pensioners' Convention (NPC) in Devon.

At an open meeting at Honiton British Legion chairman Tony Smith welcomed NPC Devon officers Sheila Curzon and Bernard Endacott and handed over the first group membership application.

Mr Endacott described the setting up of NPC Devon as a major step forward in the pensioners' movement in the west country.

He said: "The real strength of NPC nationally is the strength of its many affiliated groups which together have over one million members.

"NPC is the only national campaign group in the country which is run by pensioners for pensioners."

Mr Endacott said the NPC is continually active in rallies and lobbies of parliament, leads delegations to MPs and makes submissions on government policies affecting pensioners.

We suffer in Devon with a profusion of groups representing older people all with different priorities and aims such as Age UK, Devon Pensioners' Action Forum, Senior Council for Devon, Senior Citizens Centres and welfare groups.

We are the strongest voting constituency at elections but governments can take advantage of divisions among groups such as the state retirement age.

We need to unite on common issues and use our strength on behalf of vulnerable members of the community.

Be vigilant, say police

POLICE are urging members of the public in Branscombe to be vigilant after two thefts occurred in the east Devon village.

Between Saturday, April 30th, and Tuesday, May 3rd, garden tools, a leaf blower, hedge trimmer and chainsaw were stolen from a garage block close to the village hall.

Then overnight between Sunday and Monday, May 1st and 2nd, a quad bike was stolen from Manor Mill Farm.

Police believe both incidents may have taken place in the early hours of Monday, May 2nd.

A spokesman for Seaton police said: "We would ask people to be extra vigilant and to report any suspicious people or vehicles, especially larger type vehicles such as vans, pick ups and 4x4 vehicles."

Anyone with information about the thefts is asked to call police on 08452 77444.

Help with hedgehogs

DEVON Wildlife Trust (DWT) is seeking help with a hedgehog monitoring campaign.

The aim is to find out more about the current state of the hedgehog population in the county, so DWT is asking people to submit reports of hedgehog sightings in or near their garden over the last few years.

DWT says there are growing signs that the hedgehog population is in decline throughout the UK.

Sightings reports can be filed online through www.devonwildlifetrust.org

Meeting bid for post office services hopes

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indlenews.co.uk

CAMPAIGNERS for the retention of post office services in Colyton have been granted a meeting with Post Office Ltd officials.

The date has not yet been decided, but the meeting is expected to take place at some point during this week.

The Colyton branch is closing on Thursday, May 24th because the sub-postmaster is resigning.

Post Office Ltd has so far drawn a blank in its search for a replacement sub-postmaster and premises.

A Post Office Ltd spokesman said: "Following the resignation of the sub-postmaster at Colyton the branch will regrettably close on May 24th.

"It is our intention to retain Post Office service in Colyton and we are currently investigating the options and looking for someone with suitable premises willing to take on the running of the branch.

"Our aim is to keep any period of temporary closure to a minimum and we apologise for the inconvenience this may cause our customers."

An informal local action group — led by Jane Dauncey and Dave Baxendale — has been created to ensure that Colyton will continue to enjoy this vital service.

A statement issued by the group shortly after its formation said: "We are very concerned that in under four weeks' time Colyton will be without a service and as yet no arrangements have been made so that people can draw their pensions etcetera.

"Many older people do not have a car to go elsewhere and some are unable to use public transport either."

There has been some progress and on Friday, May 6th, Jane told Pulman's View that the group has been granted a meeting with Post Office Ltd officials.

She said: "I really believe they [Post Office Ltd] are working very hard to find a solution, but there is still concern and likely to be a gap in service."

Application on pub land

PLANS to transform an area of land close to a pub on the outskirts of Axminster have been submitted to East Devon District Council.

If the application is given the go-ahead three properties plus parking spaces could be constructed at the site of The Old Inn, Kilmington.

The application has been put forward by the Lake Hanson Partnership.

In a design and access report submitted to district council planning officials by Taylor-Wilkinson, the agent for Lake Hanson Partnership, it stated: "The application proposes a terrace of three, two storey cottage style dwellings of modest three bedroom proportions.

"The new dwellings have been designed following an assessment of the site and its village context, taking full account of the existing grain of development within the area."

Access to the site would be through The Old Inn car park.

Restoration is halfway

A GREENHOUSE restoration project at Escot Park, near Ottery St Mary, has reached the half way point.

The greenhouse dates back to the Victorian era. Repairs to the structural work have now been completed and reglazing is scheduled to take place this month.

Two sections of the building are still in need of restoration. Escot is hopeful the greenhouse will be open to visitors in the near future.

A driving school with 38 years experience!

I have been teaching people to drive for over 40 years. I trained to become an A.D.I - Approved Driving Instructor, with the Royal Corps of Transport (six months training). I am a very experienced instructor who know exactly what the D.S.A - Driving Standards Agency, are looking for, which in turn gives me a very high pass rate. My main aim is to teach safety for life, it upsets me to see flowers on telegraph poles and trees. Therefore, teaching care, consideration and courtesy to other road users, and to be responsible for their own actions is vital. I feel very strongly about high driving standards, which means teaching good control skills from the very beginning and making the most of every lesson. Not quantity but quality driving lessons - learning to drive can be quite expensive.

so reaching a very good test standard as soon as possible must benefit all concerned. Unfortunately geographically our driving test centres are at least one hour away, which means longer lessons, so you then might consider sharing your lesson with a good friend. This can be good fun and save money. I am realistic enough to know that in these difficult times people may need to get as much private practice as possible from family or friends, but I prefer that they have three or four good lessons first, so as to set them up with good habits and correct driving procedures. Not wishing to offend, good drivers do not always make good teachers, but plenty of good driving practice can be helpful. If family and friends do not wish to help with the learning, why not give me a call and arrange some refresher come teaching lessons, it could be a good investment. Learning to drive can be time consuming which of course costs money, I am only to aware of this fact, so over the past years I have personally developed some very good teaching aids which help to reduce time in vehicle control skills. My latest teaching aid is a method of teaching the deaf or hard of hearing to drive without having to use voice or hand communication. It is expected to be approved in the near future. So remember, not quantity but quality, you do not always need loads of lessons, but you do need good quality lessons. Cost saving and learning to drive safely for life is my aim. So have fun, gain some freedom and independence, but more importantly drive safe for life!

Sporting Rights, sporting wrongs

Sporting rights in essence are the rights to kill living wild creatures and retain ownership of their bodies. Unless there is a specific grant or reservation of sporting rights (which is very common) the general rule is that a land owner has the right to do what he wishes on his own land and in principle is free to kill any wild creature on his own land (subject to any statutory restrictions). The basic rule relating to ownership can be modified. Sporting rights are commonly reserved with or without power of entry. Sporting rights separated from land over which they can be exercised technically comprise what is called a profit, similar to an easement. Profits in the form of sporting rights can be bought and sold separately. For example, the owner of one piece of land may have the right to recover fallen birds which have been shot on his neighbour's territory.

Sporting rights can be separated from land either by reservation on sale (where the land being sold does not benefit from the rights) or by grant (where the rights are sold but the land is retained).

It is important to investigate the existence of these rights when purchasing country property as any rights which do exist could affect the new owner's plans for managing the land, felling trees and ploughing fields. Thinking of becoming self-sufficient?

Save on expensive fuel bills and make neighbours green with envy with this guide to adopting an eco-friendly approach to energy: from solar panels to wind turbines.

If eco-warriors including Prince Charles and Glastonbury founder Michael Eavis have their way, solar panels and wind turbines could soon be heating homes and lighting offices in the UK with renewable energy.

His eco-minded Royal Highness recently called on Britons to take shorter showers to save money on energy bills - and revealed he increased the use of renewable energy at his four households to 22% last year.

Farmer Eavis has just started building more than 1,000 solar panels on the roof of his cow barn in Somerset, in what's thought to be the biggest solar roof in the country since new Government subsidies were announced in April.

Renewable energy is a green, cost-effective alternative to coal, oil and natural gas. Easily replenished (or 'renewed') and stemming from infinite resources, it's never been easier to sign up. Government legislation and incentives mean that with a little investment, you could turn your home from a fossil fuel-dependent space into a green energy palace - and save money in the long run.

• Solar power

Did you know the average home in the UK could generate 50-60% of the power needed to supply its own electricity? And solar panels don't just generate light - they can also provide hot water for your home.

The panels are made up of photovoltaic (PV) cells, each one made from layers of semiconducting material. Light shining on the cell creates an electric field.

• Wind turbines

Although the UK is home to 40% of Europe's total wind energy, only 0.5% of that power is currently being tapped into. But before you go slapping a wind turbine on your roof, remember they're best located on a mast or tower, ideally on a hill.

Wind turbines are good for homes with an annual average wind speed of six metres per second or more. Distance from nearby buildings, trees or hills that might decrease the wind coming your way is also key and you'll need to take note of local planning requirements, as permission is usually required prior to installation.

• Ground source heat

You can heat your home by burning carbon-neutral biomass or by tapping into the heat below the ground with ground source heat pumps. The pumps transfer heat from underground into your home, heating either the space or the water in your house.

• Try it out

If you've balked at the start-up costs of making your home greener, you'll be pleased to hear that Government funding of up to £2,500 is available, as well as Feed In Tariffs - just log on to www.lowcarbonbuildings.org.uk to apply for an online grant.

You could also qualify for Renewable Obligation Certificates (ROCs), or other green energy certificates, which can save you cash.

Money does grow on trees

Next time you're driving down a motorway past a forest, take a moment to realise that all those trees could be yours. Commercial forestry is one of the safest, greenest and most tax-efficient investments you can make and, according to experts, it's never been a better time to invest in a leafy portfolio.

When the credit crunch caused stocks and shares to lose their value and the housing market to drop, forestry and timber prices stayed solid.

There are many reasons why forestry is an attractive investment, but one of the main benefits are the tax breaks involved.

After two years of owning a commercial forest, your investment qualifies for business property relief, meaning you don't have to pay inheritance tax (IHT) on it further down the line.

By investing in forestry, you're also doing your bit for the planet.

The West Country's 'hidden gem,'

The Blackdown hills are also known as the West Country's 'hidden gem,' forming a little-known but tranquil, and beautiful group of hills complimenting the Devon and Somerset border.

Steep ridges, high plateau, valleys and springs create a charming mosaic of countryside dotted with farms, villages and ancient features. The area extends from Wellington in the north to Honiton in the south and from Cullompton in the west to Chard in the east.

What makes the Blackdown Hills special is the unspoilt rural character of the "ordinary" landscape. Farming, largely dairying, has retained many traditional practices. The area remains sparsely populated and there are no towns within the 'area of outstanding beauty.'

This special place is home to wildlife and people, with valuable habitats existing alongside living, working communities. Unique geology creates an exceptional environment where rare plant, insect and invertebrate species can flourish.

The Blackdown Hills have been protected as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) since 1991. The Blackdown Hills AONB Partnership is the body which exists to protect this precious landscape.

TV's Countryfile presenter delights

TEN Seaton Women's Institute (WI) members attended the Devon Federation WI Spring Meeting in Torquay.

After 90 years it is going from strength to strength with six new WI start-ups in 2010.

The morning session included presentations from Simon Hall from BBC Spotlight, this was followed by half an hour of well-known songs from the Torbay Police Choir.

The guest speaker in the afternoon was the popular Adam Henson.

Readers will recall he is a current presenter of Countryfile and a previous winner of a competition from 3,500 applicants for the job.

Viewing numbers now stand at between seven and nine million since the programme was moved to Sunday evenings.

Adam said that honesty and transparency in food production was paramount in maintaining public confidence.

He went on to explain how, in order to maximise yields, today's farmers are using satellite technology to guide their tractors and combines.

It was an enjoyable and informative day. Seaton's April meeting was well attended with Mike Ashby's talk Briefs, Bands and Boats.

Really a light-hearted take on his career as a prosecuting solicitor working at Heathrow Airport, playing in Honiton Brass Band and restoring old wooden boats in retirement.

Members are looking forward to the next lunch meeting in May taking place at Axmouth Golf Club.

On May 17th the group is debating the National Federation resolutions for 2011 and on June 21st Janet Williams will be demonstrating how designer hats are made.

Visitors will be welcome at both meetings taking place at Seaton Methodist Church Hall at 2.15pm.

Probus club gets a guided tour of city through ages

THE speaker at the meeting of the Axminster Probus Club on May 3rd was Clive Gale, a Red Badge Guide, who spoke on Exeter Through the Ages.

Using slides to illustrate his subject, Clive addressed the meeting with great knowledge and good humour.

He began by describing the early activities of the Romans and went on to cover the development of the city and the cathedral through the centuries, right up to the air-raid damage suffered during the second world war.

He had many anecdotes, particularly about the religious aspects of the city.

The first bishop was Leofric, Bishop of Crediton, who was appointed to the office in 1046 but did not come to Exeter until 1050.

The construction of the cathedral commenced in 1114 and Clive told his audience of its adaptation over nearly 900 years to the magnificent edifice we see today, containing the tombs of many of the bishops.

At one time the officers of the cathedral, including the Dean and the Precentor, were vulnerable to attack from the populace, resulting in the cathedral being walled with manned gates on the six roads in.

But St Petroc's Church had doors into both the close and the city, so those in the know could gain access at will.

A curfew provided safety at night — anyone found in the close after curfew could be summarily hanged.

The curfew bell is still rung to this day, one chime for each day of the month, meaning 31 chimes throughout May.

Clive's stories and illustrations were well-received by the Probus Club members, vice chairman Eric Linton expressing their appreciation.

The Axminster Probus Club, for retired and semi-retired business and professional men, meets on the first Tuesday morning of each month at the Ridgeway Hotel, Smalldridge.

For further information ring 01460 220528.

Men learn of road hazards

"LOOK out for the moon walking bear in this video clip" said Devon County Council's instructor on safe driving Mike Hull, because everyone had missed it the first time around.

The exercise proved that unless you are looking for something on the road, you just won't see it, with potentially disastrous consequences.

Examples given were motor cyclists and bikers.

Mike was addressing a breakfast meeting of Hemmock Men on the topic of safe driving, especially in older age, challenging the men to improve their skills despite the body's natural wear and tear.

The interactive workshop provided help and advice about modern driving including hazard perception, manoeuvrability, medication and eyesight and automatic cars.

Collie joins group with Dogs' Trust fundraiser

DURING March, members of the RBL Women's Section, Axminster, met for their monthly meeting and were treated to a visit and talk by fundraiser Claire Joslin from the Dogs' Trust, Ilfracombe.

Accompanied by her rescue rough collie, Sky, Claire told the members about the formation of the Dogs' Trust, formerly known as the National Canine Defence League and showed slides of the centre.

The Dogs' Trust has come a long way since its inception in 1891 and as the UK's largest dog welfare charity, looks after over 15,000 strays or abandoned dogs in 17 rehoming centres throughout the country.

No healthy dogs are ever put down and the charity is working towards the day when all dogs can enjoy a happy life, free from the threat of unnecessary destruction.

Dogs' Trust run a sponsorship scheme for dogs who cannot be rehomed due to age, infirmity or other problems.

For £1 a week, sponsors will receive a copy of the Wag magazine, information about their dog and even a valentine card in February.

Some can be walked by volunteers and sponsors at many centres and two of our members have sponsored dogs over 20 years from Shoreham-on-Sea and Salisbury.

Like so many other charities, the Dogs' Trust does not receive any government funding and relies on raising funds via legacies, open days, fetes and other fund raising activities.

Sky joined in the evening quite happily and following a collection amongst the members of the RBL Women's Section £35 was raised as a donation to their funds.

With NIGEL SPELLER

THERE is news this week about Bishops and their gardens from an unexpected source, namely the monthly issue of Devon Country Gardener.

First in April came details of the Bishop's Palace Gardens at Wells of 14 glorious acres and is open Fridays to Mondays from 10.30am to 6pm — but closing at 2pm on Saturdays.

Guided tours are each day at 11.30am and 2.30pm on weekdays. For further information visit www.bishopspalacewells.co.uk.

The May issue of the same journal came nearer home with news of the restoration of the Bishop of Exeter's garden, by Sue Cranch, the gardener in charge.

This time it is a Grade II listed garden adjacent to Exeter Cathedral. It is thought to be the oldest in Devon and predates the Bishop's Palace built in 1224.

Again free tours are available by joining one of the Red Coat guided tours of the centre of Exeter; no booking is required. For more information visit the website www.exeter.gov.uk/guidedtours.

Ray Hunter, of Axminster, this week said: "At a recent Churches Together Meeting, Charlotte Page, a young leader from the South West Region of Christian Aid, gave a very clear summary of the history of the charity, which arose out of the concern of a group of British clergy about the plight of refugees in Europe after the last war.

"Now it is a substantial organisation and has been adopted as the relief agency of 46 denominations in the UK.

"Its main thrust is the belief that poverty can be eradicated if we work at this together.

"It was good to get updated news of the continuing success of the Kibira slum water and sanitation project promoted during last year's Christian Aid Week.

"We learned that when a fire was threatening one of the installations recently, the local people tore down their own homes to make a fire break to preserve it.

"Charlotte's talk was followed by questions from the floor. We learned that Christian Aid is listened to nationally; money raised does not go through governments, but through partner organisations in the field, and all has to be accounted for.

"All this and more gives a boost for the forthcoming Christian Aid Week which takes place during the week of May 15th to 21st.

Astonishing 'rarities' on our marshes

APRIL has seen some astonishing rarities turning up on the Axe Estuary marshes. A great white heron was seen on the Seaton Marshes lagoon on the 19th, a purple heron was spotted at the Colyford Common hide on the 23rd and, last but not least, a white stork was also seen at Colyford Common three days later.

All these birds were photographed by Steve Waite, Sue Smith and Karen Woolley and illustrated in the twice-monthly newsletter organised by David Walters. Contact him on 01297 552616 if you'd like to go on his emailing list.

Now, who has heard a cuckoo? Not me, sadly, though Bob Oliver from Aylesbeare heard one calling on April 21st, whilst a friend told me that he had heard more than one cuckoo calling near Morton in West Dorset. It is so sad to realise that these birds, once considered the regular harbingers of spring, are now almost a rarity.

However, my swallows are back and seem to be titivating a last year's nest, rather than build a new one, possibly because mud is in short supply. It has been encouraging, however, to see good numbers of orange-tip butterflies, the odd holly blue and speckled wood, though I have yet to spot a tortoiseshell, while brimstones seem to have been remarkably scarce.

Butterflies will be a key theme in Bridport from May 14th to June 4th when businesses in the town have been challenged by the Dorset Wildlife Trust to decorate their shop windows with all things butterfly. It is hoped that creative butterfly scenes will appear in all this town's streets in a competition which will provide the winner with a year's corporate membership of the DWT. A Wild about Butterfly Bonanza event will also be held from 10am to 3pm on June 4th at Bridport Arts Centre and the Community Orchard.

One of the most archetypal sights of the summer is that of swifts scything their way through sky on long scimitar-shaped wings and screaming near their nest sites as they swoop back and forth high in the air.

Yet again, numbers have dwindled due, it is believed, to an ever increasing lack of suitable nesting habitats. Old buildings provide the best nesting sites, especially in towns. A sociable bird, small parties love to wheel and soar while catching insects.

Swifts, which winter in Southern Africa, arrive here in late April, and at once set about finding suitable nesting holes where they can lay three eggs, rear rear young and then depart at the end of July. It is a remarkable fact that the bird appears to remain constantly on the wing, for its short, feathered legs and toes are useless for walking, and it is even believed that it sleeps and mates on the wing.

Planners, developers and home owners in swift "hot spots" are being urged to ensure that suitable nesting sites are incorporated into buildings. A wide variety of nesting boxes, ranging from plywood to woodcrete is available and should be installed on the side of a building that gets least sunshine and under an overhang or the eaves. The box must be sited at least five metre above the ground and with clear access.

Whilst it can take some time for swifts to discover newly installed nesting boxes, you can speed up the process by playing a cd containing the bird's calls from early in the nesting season (May to June) and in the latter part of July when juveniles are seeking nesting sites for next year. For further information go to www.swift-conservation.org.

Incidentally, swifts do not belong to the same family as swallows and martins. The former is the family Cypselidae, the latter Hirundinidae.

If you would like to find out more, or wish to register your interest, please contact Holly Sandford at Raise the Roof Productions for Channel 4 at holly.sandford@raisetherooftoproductions.com or on 0141 427 5916.

The Devon County Show, now in its 116th year, boasts livestock, food and drink, a flower and garden marquee and lots of family entertainment on the 93 acre site.

Entertainment includes the dare-devil Bolddog Lings motorcycle display team, horseback falconry displays and a seven-a-side rugby tournament in the Sainsbury's Arena.

Once again children go free on Saturday and, for the first time, this year senior citizens are eligible for the buy-one-get-one-free offer on all three days of the show as long as they buy the tickets before Wednesday 11th May. Additional savings are also available on tickets bought in advance. To book and for more information, ring 01392 353700, email info@dcsow.org or why not book them through our website www.devoncountysow.co.uk.

Kirstie's new series will be filmed in the summer and shown on Channel 4 at a later date.

Ruthless CIA chase

LONDON-BORN film-maker Joe Wright imprints his distinctive artistic vision on Seth Lochhead and David Farr's script — Hanna.

He conjures a mood of impending doom as the conflicted characters traverse the globe before a climactic showdown that hammers home the fairy-tale allegory.

Sixteen-year-old Hanna lives in snowbound Scandinavia with her father Erik honing the fighting skills she will need for the perilous mission that lies ahead: to kill ruthless CIA agent Marissa Wiegler — played by Cate Blanchett.

Once she is trained and primed for action, Hanna bids farewell to her father and embarks on her quest to kill Wiegler with trained assassin Isaacs and his henchmen on her trail.

En route, Hanna meets hippie mother Rachel, her despairing husband Sebastian and their sassy teenage daughter, Sophie, who is at that difficult age when everything her parents say is wrong.

Hanna plays out a Bourne Identity-style game of cat and mouse between the plucky teenager and her pursuers.

Wright cannot resist directorial flourishes so he shoots a sequence at Berlin airport in an apparently single take, reaching a crescendo with Erik brawling with four knife-wielding assailants.

Gardening on a Budget

TIPS ON how to tighten our belts in the garden, in the wake of the Budget - plus, find out what else needs doing in the garden this week.

The spring weather has lured enthusiastic punters to garden centres nationwide, ready to snap up a plethora of gorgeous plants, containers and other sundries to make their garden dazzle this year.

Yet research shows that in a tough economy, gardens are a low priority among householders. The current average spend on a UK garden is £482.16 a year with 42% of people spending nothing at all on their outdoor areas, according to research by woodcare manufacturer Ronseal.

But you can have a lovely garden without spending a fortune. When money's tight, there's a crop of prudent measures which can be taken which will save you a lot of cash.

Before visiting a garden centre, make a list first and only buy what is on that list. Work out what you really need, list the plants and other essentials and stick to that list. Walk up your garden beforehand and see where the spaces are, how the plants you want are going to work and where you will put them.

If you have a stack of containers to fill, consider using permanent plantings rather than annuals which will need replacing each year. Check in your own garden to see what you may be able to use. Overgrown clumps of ornamental grasses and other perennial plants such as hostas can be lifted and divided and divisions of the plant can be used to fill pots and other containers.

Hostas in particular look great grown in pots, their lush green leaves making any shady corner of the patio look exotic.

Longer-term, scan the discount shelves for sale plants which have finished flowering but should be absolutely fine next season. You can often save quite a few pounds on perennials which will bloom year after year if you're prepared to wait a while for the results.

If you're buying shrubs, buy smaller plants which are cheaper, as the space in between can be filled with hardy annuals grown from seed that you directly sow into the flower beds. They are easy to grow, great value for money plus they give lots of colour all summer. Try poppies, corn flowers, calendula, larkspur and candytuft.

Don't wait until late April or early May to buy trays of summer bedding when prices will be at their peak. If you want annuals, sow them from seed, which is a much cheaper option. Biennial seeds such as foxgloves, hollyhocks and sweet williams can also be sown to give you colour next year.

Look for seed bargains on eBay and at discount stores such as Poundland, Lidl and Wilkinson. Cut costs further by going halves with fellow gardening friends, as you often won't need to sow the whole packet. Alternatively, swap your unwanted seeds and plants for some you do fancy from a number of websites including www.gardenswapshop.co.uk or free forums through organisations such as the National Gardening Association (www.garden.org/seedswap).

If you don't have time to sow seed, visit your local car boot sale to pick up plant bargains as well as cheap garden tools. Bargains can also be found in the free classified ads on Gumtree, while you may pick up something for free that someone else doesn't want if you join your local Freecycle group (www.freecycle.org/group/uk).

To increase your stock for the lowest price, take cuttings from plants such as fuschias, marguerites and pelargoniums.

And if you haven't yet started to make your own compost, there's no time like the present. There's a variety of website guides, but choose the more reliable ones such as www.gardenorganic.org.uk. Also contact your local authority to find out if it supplies subsidised bins in your area.

Best of the bunch - Snake's Head Fritillaria (Fritillaria meleagris)

This dainty-looking bulb is a must for flower lovers, with its delicate purple-and-white nodding bells with intricate checkerboard patterns.

It thrives in partial shade in moist soil, so use a loam-based, water retentive compost and don't let it dry out in summer.

Snake's head fritillaries look good in groups in the centre of small containers, or combined with specie crocus in bowls oversown with grass to create a miniature naturalistic meadow in a bowl.

ROYAL NAVAL AIR STATION YEOVILTON INTERNATIONAL

AIR DAY

SATURDAY 9 JULY 2011

CELEBRATING 40 YEARS OF THE LYNX HELICOPTER

WIN TICKETS

RNAS Yeovilton will be celebrating 40 years since the first flight of the Lynx aircraft at this year's International Air Day on Saturday 9 July. Designed to meet a world-wide need for a small ship helicopter able to take the battle to the enemy, fight autonomously and survive in the most hostile environment the Westland's Lynx, XW835, undertook its maiden flight on 21 March 1971. Agile and manoeuvrable, Lynx's compatibility with the deck of a small ship in severe conditions is unequalled by any other helicopter and over the years the maritime Lynx has proven itself in all theatres of operation at sea and, more recently over land, to the point where it is recognised as the finest small ship helicopter in its class in service today. Lynx is a de facto NATO standard and over 200 naval Lynx helicopters are operational with 11 navies, many of which will feature in an international flypast at Air Day. Also present will be the AW 159 Wildcat, the replacement for the current Lynx which will fly from Frigates and Destroyers of the Royal Navy well into the 21st Century.

An extensive flying and static display will take place to mark this significant anniversary with historic aircraft such as the Swordfish, Seafire, Sea Fury and Sea Hawk, coming together with their modern counterparts to highlight the role that RNAS Yeovilton Squadrons have played, and continue to play, in operations throughout the decades to the present day.

Air Day will also feature world class military aerobatic teams such as the RAF Red Arrows and the Royal Jordanian Falcons. Fast jet displays will include the Belgian Air Force F16 representing the cutting edge of modern global fighter technology. Amongst the helicopter displays will be the Royal Navy Black Cats and a rare appearance by the dynamic Dutch Air Force Apache Demo Team. Not to be missed, we will be welcoming for the first time Team Viper with their 5-ship formation display of classic Hunter jets. As well as the Royal Navy Historic Flight's rare aircraft the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight's Lancaster bomber will also be in attendance. It is hoped, subject to its own successful fund-raising campaign, that Vulcan XH558 will grace the skies once again at Air Day. There are plenty of light-hearted fun packed displays as well courtesy of O'Brien's Flying Circus and the barnstorming antics of the Breitling Wingwalkers. The finale to the event will be the renowned Commando Assault Demonstration with plenty of pyrotechnics!

The Fleet Air Arm Museum will also be open on Air Day with a 25% discount to Air Day ticketholders. It houses the largest collection of Naval aircraft in Europe and it includes 14 aircraft which cannot be seen anywhere else in the World, as well as the Fly Navy 100 exhibition. Visitors can go on-board Concorde or be transported by a simulated helicopter flight to the replica flight deck of the aircraft carrier HMS ARK ROYAL.

Throughout the day there will be plenty of entertainment on the ground for all the family including side shows, funfair, vintage, classic and military vehicles, service demonstrations, picnic areas, helicopter pleasure flights, simulator rides, trade stands and much more. Adults Tickets in advance are £18, on the day £23. Senior Citizens in advance £16, on the day £23. Children (3-15 years inclusive) £5 in advance, £8 on the day. Tickets are available from website www.yeoviltonairday.co.uk or our Ticket Line 08445 781 781.

To win tickets answer the following question: What year did the Lynx Aircraft first fly? Send your answer, along with your name, address and telephone number to Yeovilton Air Day Competition, Pulman's View Newspapers, Tindle House, South Street, Axminster Devon EX13 5AD. Competition entries close Monday 20th June at Mid-day.

INITIATIVE

FERRARI is taking the initiative in the luxury supercar segment with the introduction of the Ferrari Genuine Maintenance programme.

The programme covers all the scheduled maintenance for the first seven years, regardless of vehicle mileage, and is offered on all new Ferrari California, 458 Italia and FF models and at no additional cost to the client, ensuring that Ferrari owners have ultimate peace of mind and an enhanced ownership experience.

The Ferrari Genuine Maintenance programme covers all standard maintenance items, as outlined in the service schedule, and is transferable to a new client in the event of a change of vehicle ownership. The programme has been designed to anticipate one annual service each year during the seven years, but, as there is no mileage restriction, clients who reach the service intervals by mileage (every 20,000km or 12,500miles) will be able to have their car serviced more than once per year.

The Ferrari Genuine Maintenance programme will be supplied as standard with all Ferrari California, 458 Italia and FF models delivered from 15 March 2011 and is only available through the official Ferrari service centre network.

The programme ensures cars are maintained in accordance with Ferrari's recommended schedule and safety and environmental standards are maintained throughout the period.

Residual values for the original and subsequent owners are also likely to be improved.

AXMINSTER OUTDOOR BOWLS CLUB

AXMINSTER Outdoor Bowls Club has got off to a splendid start to the new season with four victories in their first four matches.

It started with a mixed friendly home win over Culm Vale (85-51) with a top rink of William Cook, Chris Hobbs, Marion Harris, and Brian Clark (23-11) — the other winning rinks were Phil White, Cliff Bruckshaw, Ann Clayton, and Margaret Crompton ((24-13), Joan Quick, John Chance, Chris Todd, and Pam Clark (24-16), and Ken Quick, Barbara Mowatt, David Harris, and Lilian Lovatt (14-11).

The club then beat Bridport in another mixed friendly (88-58) with Phil White, Cliff Bruckshaw, Ann Clayton, and Brian Clark (28-12) leading the way. Other winners were Gill Gait, Pam Hunter, Chris Hobbs, and Bob Sherborne (27-15), William Cook, Alan Taylor, Lilian Lovatt, and Pam Clark (18-17), and Les Monk, Pat Hicks, Frank Bridge, and Margaret Crompton (15-14).

They then enjoyed success at home to Hemyock (78-62) with splendid efforts from Phil Bolwell, Chris Todd, Ann Clayton, and Brian Clark (39-7) and Phil White, Pam Hunter, and Bob Sherborne in their triples rink (16-12).

In between these games the men started their Over 60s Devon League season in great style with an excellent home win over Culm Vale (39-30) with a winning rink of Les Monk, David Harris, and Brian Clark (26-8).

YARCOMBE SKITTLES

THE culmination of the skittles season, Finals Night, took place on Saturday, April 23rd at the Yarcombe Inn.

All teams were well represented and the play-offs for the Highest Man and Highest Lady from each of the 10 teams were very competitive and close run contests.

The Captain's Knockout went to the wire with Paul Barnacle and Mike Dyer having to throw off one ball each to decide the winner.

A splendid buffet had been prepared by the Yarcombe Inn's chef, Mark, which was enjoyed by everybody.

The cups were presented by Jon Stockwell and Lesley Sutton.

The winning team was captained by Steve Waplington who received the Vicar and Churchwardens' Cup for their efforts and they also won the Marilyn Lye Knockout Cup.

Runners-up in the league were Elaine Munt's team.

Winner of the Frank Bond memorial cup for the highest score of the season was Bruce Inglis who also won the Yak cup for the highest man.

Pam Foxwell received the Glenn Blackler Rose Bowl for the highest Lady.

William Dyer and Gabby King received the Stringer Services awards for the pairs competition and Mike Dyer the Reg White Captain's Knockout cup.

The Senior Citizens' Christmas Team is grateful to receive a cheque from the league to help with the lunch in December.

LAMBERTS CASTLE RIDING CLUB

All club's teams qualify for national competition

LAMBERTS Castle Riding Club members competing at the area 12 Horse Trials competition on Sunday, April 17th had an extremely successful day with all four teams qualifying for the National Championships to be held in August.

The competition started with the senior open team members doing their dressage phase. Beci Holmes led the competition after the dressage. They had an early start on Sunday 17th April and all jumped clear show jumping and clear cross country just adding a few time penalties to their dressage scores, securing their win. The senior team members were: Beci Holmes on Reggie Del Boy, Emily Gawler on Hungover Henry and Tim Rogers on Bwana. Beci Holmes kept her lead and won individually as well.

The senior novice team consisted of Rachel Shire on Nutcracker II, Pam Ewell on Zoretto, Laura Adams on Pokey's Quest and Tim Rogers on Corrievue Imp came third overall out of 17 teams and also qualified. Rachel Shire won her individual section and Pam Ewell came third.

The junior novice team also won the team event, the team members were: Olivia Benger on Mr Monty, Sophie Benger on McCoy and Stephanie Benger on Squirrel. Sophie Benger won the class as an individual and Stephanie Benger came second.

The junior intermediate team had a narrow victory to win, the team members were Olivia Benger on Killarney, Sophie Benger on Humphrey and Stephanie Benger on Hello Handsome. Stephanie Benger came second and Sophie Benger was fourth individually.

Both junior teams managed particularly well due to the fact that their fourth team member was unable to compete at the last minute. Leaving them with teams of three so all their scores had to count.

All the teams are now looking forward to the championships. The junior event will run on Friday, August 5th as a one-day-event, the senior novice will run as a two-day-event on August 6th and 7th, and the senior open event will run as a three-day-event over the whole weekend.

HEMYOCK BOWLING CLUB

THIS has been the first full week of fixtures in this 2011 season with five matches.

The first was a friendly with Bridgwater BCL at home last Sunday when four Rinks of Triples were played. Although Hemyock lost on three rinks the final result was a close thing with BCL just coming out on top by eight shots.

Rink One: Skip R.Tennant, D.Trott, H.Lancaster — won 22-12.

Rink Two: Skip C.Risdon, A.Wedgwood, K.James, — lost 14-20.

Rink Three: Skip M.Brotheridge, S.Risdon, T.Fisher — lost 14-20.

Rink Four: Skip S.Phillips, B.Whitear, B.Heaton — lost 13-19.

The second friendly, last Tuesday, was also at home when Hemyock welcomed Bradninch for a game of four rinks. Fortunes were reversed and Hemyock won this match by four shots.

Rink One: Skip G.Chown, D.Trott, B.Heaton, M.Laudgton — lost 15-19.

Rink Two: Skip S.Phillips, F.Chown, C.Tennant, B.Hamilton — lost 18-21.

Rink Three: Skip S.Trott, T.Butler, E.Harness, T.Fisher — lost 15-18.

Rink Four: Skip R.Tennant, B.Whitear, C.Hamilton, S.Featherstone — won 24-10.

The Men's Over 60s team had its first game last Wednesday away against Uffculme.

They were promoted to Division Two at the end of last season, the fourth promotion in four years.

They got off to a good start with a win on both rinks.

Rink One: Skip M.Dear, B.Whitear and B.Tennant 26-10.

Rink Two: Skip R.Smith, D.Prettejohn and D.Edworthy 17-13.

Thursday's league games were against Tiverton Park, the men playing away and the ladies at home.

The ladies managed to win their President's Trophy game by a narrow margin of three shots although each side won a rink each.

Rink One: Skip S.Phillips, F.Chown and B.Heaton forged ahead from the start to win 17-8.

Rink Two: Skip P.Gale, E.Whitear and S.Risdon.

They sometimes struggled to find the green and the weight against opponents who were playing well, losing 12-18.

The men's County Trophy game did not go too well. After a lot of rain the Tiverton green was heavy and Hemyock men found it hard going, with a win on only one rink, and total scores of 66-90, giving Tiverton 12 points to Hemyocks one.

Rink One: Skip G.Chown, M.Laughton, D.Prettejohn, B.Tennant — lost 16-25.

Rink Two: Skip C.Risdon, J.Day, J.Alford, M.Dear — lost 15-21.

Rink Three: Skip J.Bendle, B.Whitear, T.Fisher, K.James — won 25-16.

Rink Four: Skip R.Smith, M.Baldwin, T.Butler, D.Edworthy — lost 8-28.

Those that came to the first of the Friday club nights enjoyed the conviviality and food that was available, but the thundery downpour put a stop to the bowling, and only a few ends were able to be played.

As some people enjoy competitive bowling it was decided that the Umbrella Competition will be held on these evenings, starting from next Friday, May 13th.

This will be open to all members.

HONITON GOLF CLUB

SUNDAY'S game was for the EGU Gold Medal and was played in rapidly improving conditions.

As every week goes by the greens
are growing back into themselves after the necessity of work week. So with the course spruced and trimmed into attractive edges we attacked with gusto to record the lowest gross score
that would win the Medal.

The net scores had Paul Blackmore
first in Division One with a 65.
Second was Richard Reece with a 70
ahead of Jim Wallis in third with 71.

Division Two was won by Jake
Phillips' spectacular net 61 with Tim
Morris second with 65 and Jonathan Barker third 71. Paul Blackmore's 80 took the Gold.

Tuesday Mixed

On the Bank Holiday Monday
members played the President's Trophy. This is a mixed competition,
Foursomes Medal with the best 16
scores going forward to match-play knock-outs.

This Trophy was presented to the club in 1982 by the then president Mr H E Hansford to the club captain in that year, Keith Upstone, who is now the club president. The winners of the medal play competition were Anne
Davies and Alec Gosling with Net
70.5. Second place Sue and Paul Witton Net 72. Third place with Net
73 were Dot Grove and Max Pipe.

Ladies Section

The weather got progressively colder during the morning as the ladies section headed out for play on Wednesday, but as the temperatures plummeted the scores just kept getting better.

High scores abounded in the Medal Trophy with Brenda Hyde achieving a nett 70 just ahead of Jane Watts on nett 71, while Silver Division's Anne Davies scored an incredible nett 68 to win this month's medal. Jane Watts was second in the Silver Division with a nett 71. Bronze One Division was won by Brenda Hyde with her excellent score of nett 70, followed by Moira Cooper on nett 75 and Catherine Doherty on nett 76.

In Bronze Two Division Christine

◆ PICTURED above, from left, Gill Freeman and Jeff Merrett MBE, chairman of Dream-A-Way, receive a cheque for £4,000 from past captain John Stabb and Graham Burch

Whately came out on top with a nett 73, followed by Lesley Oxenham on nett 75 and Christine White took third place with a nett 78, on countback.

Senior Section

With several members of the Seniors' Section on their annual sojourn across the Channel it was a slightly depleted field that took to the course for this month's medal competition.

The results were puzzling with a few very good scores but the majority in the other direction.

Much shaking of heads occurred on the return to the clubhouse with players at a loss to explain why this happened in very benign playing
conditions.

Winner of the first division was last year's captain Ben Laite with a nett 65 which was good enough to give him the overall win and the Monthly Medal Tankard.

Hot on his heels were the sprightly octogenarians Bill Spice and John

Egerton with scores of nett 66 and 67 respectively.

Tony Proudfoot and Mike Stroud took the remaining prize positions
both with nett 68.

In Division Two Bill Phillips
continued his run of good form with a nett 66 to take first place. John Foster 70, Bob Underwood 71, John Weeden 71 and Rob Canterbury 72 were in the remaining prize positions.

An away match with Crediton was played this week. Honiton were led by former Crediton member John Egerton but unfortunately his local knowledge was not enough to overcome the home team who won taking five and halving one of the seven games.

In the first round of the Emerton-
Court knock-out competition
Honiton recorded an impressive home victory 4-1 over last year's winners Royal North Devon.

Next week's second leg away
should be interesting.

Dream-A-Way Charity

At a luncheon held at the club the 2010 club captain of Honiton Golf Club, John Stabb, was happy to present the proceeds of his charity fundraising throughout 2010.

He thanked all members of the golf club for their efforts on his charity's behalf in raising such a magnificent amount, special mention was made of David and Jutta Davey who gave many hours of their time to ensure the charity benefited.

Each year the club captain nominates a charity and special golf days are set aside to raise funds for designated charities.

The Exeter-based charity Dream-A-Way is now in receipt of the sum of £4,000, an excellent sum and in accepting this amount on behalf of the charity was Dream-A-Way
chairman Jeff Merrett.

Mr Merrett expressed his thanks for the efforts of members of Honiton
Golf Club, he assured members present that the money would be put to good use in providing holidays for the charity's clients.

FENITON BOWLING CLUB

THE highlight of the week was the match against the Bowls Devon President's team.

This year's match had added significance in that the Bowls Devon President is Don Coyne a long standing member of Feniton Bowling Club. The match was played in a competitive but friendly spirit.

The Bowls Devon President's team won by 109-92. Although, Feniton won only one rink, A. Evans, R. Crowe-Swords, J. Skinner and A. Kury 19-16, all the other rinks were closely contested.

Earlier in the week, Feniton entertained a touring side from Westleot and lost by 94-127. The winning rinks were, J. Dibble, J. Rolph, M. Chipperfield and L. Eveleigh 20-10, R. Crowe-Swords, A. Pritchard, M. Eveleigh and A. Smith 20-16 and A. Coyne, T. Young, R. Clarke and I. Veitch 20-11.

Last Tuesday Chardstock were the visitors and ran out winners by 78-62. The only winning rink for Feniton was T. Pyle, G. North, L. Eveleigh and A. Kury 18-12. In another midweek clash away against local rivals Honiton, Feniton won by 84-70, not losing a single rink.

The winning rinks were T. Pyle, J. Smith, E. Tuck and A. Kury 24-17, G. Blackmore, D. Phillips, T. Young and A. Smith 23-21 and L. Ley, J. Lovell, J. Rolph and S. Kury 19-14, the fourth rink was tied.

At the weekend, Bridport were the visitors and in a rain curtailed match Feniton lost by 59-70. The winning rinks were M. Imms, R. Clarke, R. Clarke and C. Granger 16-13 and G. Blackmore, R. Cooke, J. Smith and R. Smith 22-9. On Sunday Feniton travelled to South Molton and in a very close match won by 101-97. The winning rinks were L. Crook, R. Veitch and K. Lovering 16-12, F. Jones, J. Smith and A. Smith 15-14 and G. Blackmore, R. Cooke and I. Veitch 28-5.

The final indoor winter competition, the short mat pairs league was won by Jo O'Sullivan and Anne Edwards with Don Conbeer and John Dibble finishing as runners-up.

HEMYOCK BOWLS CLUB

IT was a big day for two Hemyock lady bowlers when they played their first county game for Devon and received their County Colours from the Devon lady president, Sue Trott.

It was especially memorable for Sue as it is her first year as president, and she is also a member of the Hemyock club.

Congratulations were extended to Sue Cridland and Penny Gale, and a welcome to this elite Club of County Players.

They have worked hard over the past few years to achieve the required number of points in County and club competitions to achieve this goal.

The game on Saturday was at Tiverton Borough against a mixed team of six rinks against the host club.

It has been a slow start at Hemyock bowling Club with only a few games on the fixture card in April. Two matches have been played with the following results:

Match one versus Cullompton: Rink 1 - Skip R.Smith 24-22; Rink 2 - Skip G.Chown 27-12; Rink 3 - Skip S.Trott 18-18; Rink 4 - Skip S.Phillips 23-18. This gave Hemyock 15 points.

Match two versus Culm Vale: Rink - Skip R.Smith 15-19; Rink - Skip J.Bendle 17-15; Rink - Skip R.Drew 25-16; Rink - Skip S.Phillips 24-18. This gave Hemyock 14 points.

Two very good results at the start of the two Counties League games.

On the social side a Royal Wedding party was held at the club last Friday. A devious quiz had been devised on the theme of the London Underground which kept everyone occupied before the meal was served.

Thanks are due to Sandra Featherstone and Sue Risdon who organised the evening and produced a delicious meal with lovely homemade puddings.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

WAYNE Spiller and Alan Rowe MBE of Honiton Running Club took part in the Great West Run last Sunday before last.

This is a good race for the spectator standing on Exeter High Street as runners are taken up and down it passing the same spot four times.

However, this road half marathon has the reputation of being uninspiring for the runners and is deceptively hilly in parts. Wayne finished in 755th position in a time of 1:51 and Alan finished in 1,243rd place in 2:04. The race was won by Tom Merson of Bristol and West AC in the time of 1:10.

On the same day, Steve Boyes took part in the North Dorset Village Marathon which is a picturesque race along country lanes through local villages with its base at Sturminster Newton.

Steve was pleased to beat last year's time by 5 minutes especially considering he had some dodgy Argentine wine two days before. He finished in 3:34 and 75th place.

The race was won by Ian Habgood of Bournemouth AC in a time of 2:36 and there were just over 300 finishers.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

Klara fulfills lifetime marathon ambition

MANY people pursue what appear to be impossible dreams as they go through life.

Well on Sunday Klara Prtisilova fulfilled her ambition to compete in the Prague International Marathon.

In blistering heat she completed the race in a superb 3:41:24, 1,497th out of 5,277 finishers.

Harry Moore and Steve Atkins ran and jogged the Exeter Leukaemia Fund's (ELF) five-mile course from Bicton Arena in 1:27:00. The route took in the fantastic scenery of the Otter Valley, complete with Kingfishers, making it a grand morning out raising much needed funds for the local charity.

Only two AVR's felt brave enough to tackle the challenge of the 10.6m Black Death Run in Combe Sydenham Country Park on Sunday.

Graham Newton finished 48th overall in a very respectable time of 1 hour and 36 minutes.

Good practice for the six marathons he will be doing in the near future.

The other AVR runner was Eleanor Wood who finished 63rd in 1 hour and 39. She was delighted to be presented with a heavy stone skull for being the second veteran lady in the race.

Well done to Taunton Hash House

Harriers for putting on such a superb race. All the marshals were dressed as the Grim Reaper and there was a fete for all the family to enjoy.

Three AVR's ran the 14-mile Herepath Trail from Staple Hill on Friday evening, almost all off-road with the first few miles being all downhill, a flat middle section then a climb in the last three miles.

The heavens opening about five minutes after they started didn't dampen their spirits although the long, uphill finish was a bit of a struggle, but the trio of Garry Perratt, Patrick Devine-Wright and second-claim AVR Kevin Hawker still made good time, taking 1:40.

Having had a day's rest, Garry Perratt decided to do Sunday's Dartmoor Runners' event at Postbridge, navigating his way to the five checkpoints in a largely runnable 21-mile circuit. The weather was drier than on Friday night but the wind made up for it with a few of the legs into a very strong headwind which made for heavy going.

The few miles of tussocky grass near the end sapped his energy but he managed to hold it together to become fastest finisher — albeit of only a dozen or so runners — in about 3:40.

AXE VALE CANOE CLUB

TWO members of the Axe Vale Canoe Club have completed a 125-mile non-stop canoe marathon.

Tash Khan-Davies and Ben Sheddon paddled from Devizes to Westminster for the canoe marathon over the Easter weekend. The pair completed the challenge in just over 29 hours and raised money for Devon Air Ambulance the Axe Vale Canoe Club.

David Sheddon, of the canoe club, said: "Tash and Ben were supported by six volunteers from the club who fed and watered them, gave them information about the locks and weirs ahead and encouraged them when spirits were flagging.

"The weather was unseasonably hot. The night section on the Thames brought fresh challenges as a spectacular thunder and lightning storm brought the only flashes of vision to an otherwise very dark night.

"In addition, both Tash and Ben had to work through the pain barrier with old and new injuries affecting them.

"Both paddlers and support crew were pleased to see dawn and although some time was lost on the night section they made Teddington Lock on the Thames in time for the tide and the final 17-mile stretch."

Axe Vale Canoe Club would like to thank the individuals and businesses who sponsored the charity event.

David added: "Special thanks to the following businesses who provided the initial funding to enable the endeavour to go ahead — Morrison Engineering, Lyme Bay Winery, Mole Avon, Toucan Property Services, Otter Homes Ltd and Strictly Business."

AXMOUTH UNITED FC

AXMOUTH United notched their 10th home win of the season with a 3-1 victory over a battling Bampton side - but for 45 minutes it looked like a possible shock was on the cards.

Although starting brightly it was home keeper Andrew Smart that was required to make a point blank save on 10 minutes, tipping a close range header over the bar as the visitors won a succession of corners to apply pressure.

Axmouth were playing the better football and thought they had taken a deserved lead when Asa Sandman finished a passing move only to be flagged offside. Then in the 24th minute a sweet strike from Charlie Clarke smashed onto the crossbar and out to safety. As the home side continued to force the play they were caught out as a Bampton striker raced onto a long ball and chipped advancing Smart who had no chance and Axmouth found themselves 0-1 down after 31 minutes. Despite continuing to create more half chances the score remained at half time.

The home side knew the second 45 was crucial to their promotion push and came out firing and soon got the equaliser when Jamie Hughes curled a left foot shot into the top corner after 55 minutes. Two minutes later Hughes provided a fine cross for Stuart Aykroyd to tap home at the far post to see Axmouth go 2-1 up.

It was pretty much one way traffic as Axmouth dominated play and another Hughes effort clipped a post before Asa Sandman latched onto a pass to deftly chip the keeper and make it 3-1 after 72 minutes.

In fact Sandman could have had a five minute hatrick as first he saw a fine header hit the bar and then the keeper deny him moments later. As Axmouth dominated there was still a chance for keeper Smart to pull off another fine save when called into rare action late on.

The result was never in doubt once the home side got in front and Axmouth maintain their lofty position and excellent season which now depends on the final four games against the other top sides fighting for honours starting with the visit of table topping Exmouth on Wednesday, May 4th.

Manager Laurie Forino was again full of praise for his teams spirited display and singled out Jake Dack as outstanding on the day.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE ROUND-UP

GREAT ESCAPES DOUBLE BILL IN FINAL MATCHES

By KEVIN FAHEY

sport.pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

IT was the day of the great escapes as the Perry Street League served up an afternoon of high drama on the final day of the season.

While many issues had already been settled before the final games the likes of Perry Street and Chard Rangers knew their immediate futures were hanging in the balance.

Great escape one: With 85 minutes of the match gone Chard Rangers were facing relegation from Division Two with Shepton Beauchamp, who had already secured promotion after finishing second in the league, leading 2-1.

Chard boss Justin Mason said: "At that point we were down. We only needed one point from our last two games but we had lost to Pymore in the week and we were now up against a very good side in Shepton Beauchamp."

But the Chard players are made of stern stuff and as the clock ticked down Dave Aston grabbed a late equaliser to add to Wayne Long's first half lead to ensure the club retained their place in Division Two.

Mason added: "It was really nerve-racking and they really put me through the wringer! We kept battling and showed a lot of character; I think we have now grabbed late goals in four of our games. Considering we only had one point at Christmas to finish with 19 and stay up is a fantastic achievement."

Mason said he is hoping to stay in charge of the side and make the necessary changes to ensure that next season they get off to a better start.

Great escape two: Perry Street went into their final game of the Premier Divisions season knowing that nothing less than victory would stave off relegation. Fortunately, they were up against whipping boys Misterton, who were already down and roared to a 10-2 win to leap above Barrington and ensure their place in the top flight.

Manager Dave Ellis said: "It was very important for the club to stay in the Premier Division. We have been around a long time so the aim was to make sure we keep playing Premier Division football and then do something different for next season.

"We have done the first part and now we have to move on."

The goals flowed for Stuart Packer and Chris Warry, who both scored hat-tricks while there was two apiece for Ben Stevens and Kieran Bailey.

Ellis added: "To leave our fate to the last game was a bit nerve-racking but it is very satisfying to stay up."

No such luck for Charmouth, who had already been relegated before beating Forton Rangers 3-2 in their final Division One game.

Chard boss Nick Pomeroy said: "It was nice to end the season on a high with a win and if the committee want me to stay I'll be happy to be manager again next season."

Charmouth's goals came from Simon Smyth, Paul Griniter, his first for the club and Graham Herring.

Winsham duly added the Arthur Gage Cup to promotion from Division One with a 4-0 win over Netherbury with goals from Tom Stead (two), Sam Symes and Joe Simmonds.

"It has been a fantastic season," said boss Phil Loaring.

DEVON AND EXETER LEAGUE

SIDMOUTH Town are on the brink of their first Premier title for 43 years after winning 1-0 at Seaton Town, their only rival team.

The only goal of the game came midway through the first half with Pete Grover heading in a cross from Andy Thomson, and after that the vikings never looked like giving way despite a late surge from the seastiders.

Sidmouth are at home to Willand Rovers tomorrow night and a win will win the championship and even a draw would be enough as their goal difference is greater than the disappointed Colyford Road team.

Willand Reserves took a big step to safety when they won 2-1 at Beer Albion but it was far from easy. James Melville had the Beer goal.

Bow AAC beat Honiton Town 4-2 which virtually relegates the east Devon side barring a miracle.

Honiton had most of the game but missed a clutch of chances, while Bow stuck their away through Gavin Coles 2, Craig Skinner and Mark Harris.

The match between Westex Rovers and Colyton was abandoned after an hour when Colyton's Jimmy Richards broke his ankle. Rovers were leading 2-0 at the time.

Chard Town Reserves are closing in on the Division 3 title after scuttling Pinhoe 5-1.

Greg Channing and Lee Bailey both scored twice for Chard, Liam Cleal once. Vinny Conibere was the Pins scorer.

Woodbury had to settle for a 3-3 draw at Dukeswell Rovers who are on the brink of going down.

NO TROPHY FOR WINNERS

*Perry Street League
 Premier Division
 Lyme Regis 0
 South Petherton 1*

PERRY Street League officials have come under fire after failing to present new champions South Petherton with the Premier Division trophy after the final game of the season.

South Petherton had reclaimed the title, notching up their fourth success in six seasons, in mid-week so Saturday's match against the reigning champions was a day of celebration with players and club officials alike looking forward to receiving the league trophy.

A 1-0 victory thanks to an early goal from Steve Bowker ensured the players did their part but the afternoon ended in anti-climax when the presentation failed to take place.

"We were very disappointed that they did not present the trophy to us," said South Petherton secretary Ray Cooper.

"We took a bus down with our supporters, some grub had been arranged and we assumed someone from the league would come along to present us the trophy as champions.

"We respect all the work that the committee does for the league because it is not an easy job but they had plenty of time to organise it as we won the title by beating Farway United the previous Tuesday and the league chairman was referee of the game.

"It is a very prestigious trophy and I think it is the oldest one that the Perry Street hand out with a history going back to 1903."

While disappointed to have lost the title Lyme Boss Robin Townsend said South Petherton were worthy champions and deserved to have the league trophy presented to them after the match to celebrate the achievement.

"It was a disgrace that the league didn't present the trophy to South Petherton," said Townsend.

"They knew South Petherton had won it and if I was them I would be feeling very aggrieved.

"Gordon Childs (South Petherton manager) is a friend of mine and I know they were not happy.

"If I was them I would have been livid."

Cooper added they would now arrange to collect the trophy and present it to the manager and players at the club's end-of-season presentation evening.

In response Perry Street League secretary Bob Brunt explained it was not standard practice to present league trophies after final matches.

"None of the champions have had their trophies as it is not something we do normally because many of the committee are tied up with refereeing duties and alike," said Brunt.

"South Petherton knew beforehand we couldn't make it but they are champions and we will make sure they get the trophy for their presentation evening."
